

ALLERGENS

An allergy is when a person is very sensitive to something that is harmless for most people. For most people, things like pollen, dust, nuts, eggs and milk are harmless, but some people will have an allergic reaction when they come into contact with these. During an allergic reaction, their immune system works too hard trying to protect the body.

Match the kid to the allergen.

DUST MITE

CAT

GRASS

